

CENSUS MADE SIMPLE

THE STATISTICS

1.2%

In 2021, the enumerated population of Strathcona County (CSD) was 99,225, which represents a change of 1.2% from 2016. This compares to the provincial average of 4.8% and the national average of 5.2%.

4.4%

In 2021, there were 37,128 private dwellings occupied in Strathcona County, which represent a change of 4.4% from 2016.

84.8

The land area of Strathcona County is 1,170.65 square kilometres and the population density was 84.8 people per square kilometre.

POPULATION GROWTH

Since 2006, the population of Strathcona County has grown 20.3%, a total of 16,714 people. This growth accounted for 4% of total growth in the Edmonton CMA.

