

Strathcona County

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

The National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and Orange Shirt Day are recognized each year on September 30th. This day is an opportunity for us to reflect upon the history and impact of the residential school system, and to honour those who have lost their lives.

Recognizing the injustices committed against Indigenous peoples is an important and necessary part of our reconciliation journey. We must take this opportunity to have meaningful discussions about the history of residential schools, the legacy they have left behind, and how we will work to uplift Indigenous peoples into the future.

THEREFORE, I, Mayor Rod Frank, do hereby proclaim September 30th, 2022 as "National Day for Truth and Reconciliation" in Strathcona County, and I encourage all residents to wear orange in recognition of the day.

Dated this 27th day of September, 2022.

Signed by

Rod Frank, Mayor
